Eatrenalin welcomes celebrity guests : Ruth Moschner, Janin Ullmann and Ross Antony embark on a spectacular journey for the senses

Unique, exciting and glamorous - these are just some of the words that come to mind when guests of Eatrenalin think about their culinary experience. So it's no wonder that celebrities from all over the country make their way to Rust to try out the restaurant world-first. In addition to Ruth Moschner, Ross Antony, Glasperlenspiel and Janin Ullmann provided plenty of glamour on 02. March. Actors Philipp Danne, Caro Cult and Lea Zoe Voss as well as comedian Lukas 'Cossu' Staier also discovered the unique gastronomy event concept together.

The multi-sensory experience was in every way equal to the star cast on the red carpet and delighted with its interplay of high-quality top cuisine and visual, acoustic, olfactory as well as haptic experiences. The exclusive eight-course menu convinced both the passionate gourmets and the culinary novices among the celebrity guests. After the more than two-hour experience, one thing is certain: the stars can hardly wait to enjoy the new menu composition with which Eatrenalin chef Pablo Montoro and his team will send guests on another breathtaking sensory journey from May.
